

Summer 2022 Internship

The Chaire-réseau jeunesse de recherche sur la jeunesse du Québec \(CRJ\) "Paths towards autonomy and development of young people in a changing society" brings together stakeholders in youth research and intervention in order to meet the cross-cutting and specific needs of the 2030 Quebec Youth Policy. The Indigenous Youth component is broken down into various projects, addressing the priorities identified by Indigenous youth, including commitment to culture, well-being, community and society, support for perseverance, learning and academic success, preparation for rewarding jobs and support for entrepreneurship.

Job Description:

The person will have to support the team of the Indigenous stream of CRJ in the preparation, implementation and management of communication strategies. This involves generating activity and action on the various platforms of our social media. This person will therefore have to ensure that our various projects shine. It can also provide assistance with the development of specific projects related to creation (video clip, podcast, etc.).

Responsibilities:

- Development of a communication plan or strategy for the component;
- Support the research team in the creation and dissemination of our results;
- Improve and ensure the management of the various social media platforms and the interaction with the various members;
- Ensure the mailing of certain materials from specific projects (if necessary);
- Co-ordination of specific creative projects (eg video clips)
- Contribute to team meetings in a creative and innovative way
- Perform other tasks as needed in support of the CRJ

Qualifications, experience and skills:

- Knowledge of Indigenous youth community settings in Quebec;
- Interest and knowledge of communication strategies in research or community settings;
- Experience in community and collaborative research an asset;

- Skills in the management of social networks;
- Good oral and written skills French is necessary;
- Communication and interpersonal skills with Indigenous youth, researchers and community partners;
- Ability to be creative and work independently.

Conditions for the internship:

- Contractual status (summer internship)
- Enrollment in a Quebec university
- Remuneration according to the study cycle and experience
- Flexible schedule: Approximately 3 to 5 days/week depending on availability
- Flexibility (mainly remote work, possibility of working at Concordia and travel for meetings)

To apply, send your CV and cover letter to crj.autochtones@concordia.ca. The deadline to apply is March 21st, 2022. We are committed to comply with the Employment Equity Act. Only selected applicants will be contacted for an interview. Indigenous applicants will be prioritized.